

Ancient Religions, Gender, and the Body
Denison University, Granville OH
November 9-10, 2024
Barney Davis 212

Workshop is free and open to all!

Saturday, November 9

All Events in Barney Davis 212 Unless Otherwise Stated

8:30-9:20: Breakfast

9:20-9:30: Opening Remarks and Welcome (Kelsi Morrison-Atkins, Craig Jendza)

9:30-10:05: Alexis Wolf (UChicago)

Male Supremacist Cosmogonies and the Deep, Irrational Masculine Faith in Penis Power

10:05-10:40: Karen Spierling (Denison)

The Pursuit of Sex in Reformation Geneva

10:40-11:00: Coffee Break

11:00-11:35: Laura Gawlinski (Loyola)

Dressed Bodies in Greek Religion

11:35-12:10: Kelsi Morrison-Atkins (Denison)

Things that Matter: Clothing and Constructing the Enslaved Body in Early Christian Narrative

12:10-12:45: Erin Walsh (UChicago)

From Amulet to Verse: Gender, Embodiment, and Healing in the Late Antique East

12:45-1:30: Lunch

1:30-2:05: Miranda Amey (OSU)

Bears, Birth, Brauron: Artemis and Callisto and Why Bears are Best

2:05-2:40: Travis Proctor (Wittenburg)

Desire, Animality, and Anti-Judaism in the Epistle of Barnabas

2:40-3:00: Snack Break

3:00-3:35 Krista Dalton (Kenyon)

Torah Expertise as A Ravished Queen

3:35-4:10 Dora Gao (UMich)

"I am Isis": Migrant Presence and Selfhood in the Kyme Isis Hymn (I. Kyme 41)

4:10-4:30: Break

4:30-5:05: Paper TBD

5:05-5:30: Wrap up Discussion

6:00-8:00: Reception/Dinner
Religion Lounge, Knapp 300

Sunday, November 10

Barney Davis 212

8:30-9:30: Breakfast

9:30-10:30: Roundtable Discussion

10:30-11:30: MiCAR Discussion and Planning